

Stick Packaging Leader T.H.E.M. Announces Hiring of QA Expert Tom Peck

MARLTON, N.J. – T.H.E.M. is pleased to announce the addition of Mr. Tom Peck to the organization as Manager of Quality Assurance and Compliance. Tom's extensive experience in QA and good manufacturing practices include positions of increased responsibilities at both Kraft and Nestlé over a 30 year period.

“We are very happy and proud to announce Tom's joining our organization,” Neil Kozarsky, T.H.E.M.'s CEO, said. “This is a significant step forward in our continuing efforts to enhance “best practices” throughout our entire organization.”

Mr. Peck has an extensive background in quality control within food processing and packaging environments. He most recently spent twelve years as a hygienist at Nestle Beverage, where his responsibilities included controlling food and product safety, as well as overseeing plant sanitation. At Nestle, he completed extensive training that will be most useful in supporting T.H.E.M.'s continuing expansion in contract manufacturing.

“We will certainly be bringing T.H.E.M. to the level it needs to be at to be as a high - quality contract manufacturer,” Mr. Peck said. “The buy-in I have seen from every level of the company assures me this will be a successful, inclusive process.”

Mr. Peck is a native resident of New Jersey and a graduate of the University of South Carolina.
